Readers and leading prayers

I will be starting to write the new rota for readers and leading prayers for December through to February . If you would like to be part of this team, either with reading or prayers please e mail me .smarshall28@ntlworld.com

We all have different gifts but we can provide help and encouragement if you feel you would like to help lead worship in this way.

Sandra

Christmas Unwrapped

Thank you to those who have offered to help.

Sadly, after much deliberation it has proved too difficult to organise this year. There are a number of factors, including so much uncertainty re Covid issues.

The Monday home group has very kindly offered to purchase Bible Society Christmas booklets for all the Y4's in the schools in the parish as they did last year. They were well received by the schools.

We look forward to the opportunity to invite the schools again soon and are praying that this will be possible for Easter Cracked open. Watch this space!

Cantores Chamber Choir

November 13, 2021, 7:30 pm, Cirencester Parish Church, repeated the following weekend at Prestbury in Cheltenham.

Cantores Chamber Choir, directed by Simon Harper, presents an eclectic programme of music on the theme of saints and angels, spanning many centuries. We glimpse the choirs of heaven in plainchant and motets by Lassus and Weelkes, alongside Judith Weir's depiction of the appearance of angels in My Guardian Angel, and two exquisite double-choir anthems – Harris' Faire is the heaven, and Holst's Nunc dimittis. Saints Michael, Peter and Mary are celebrated in music by Victoria, Palestrina, Dering, Parsons, Rachmaninov and Tavener. At the centre of the programme are two works commemorating the patron saint of music, St Cecilia – Cantantibus organis by Tudor composer Peter Philips is paired with Bernard Rose's glorious Feast Song for Saint Cecilia, a setting of a text by his son Gregory.

Tickets in advance £12 (U16 free) online or from Andrew on 07800 737078. Alternatively tickets are available at the door for £15 (U16 free).

For more information please contact Nathalie Marshall or see www.cantores.net

Children's Society

The sum of £335.00 was raised from the opening of Children's Society boxes. Thank you to all of you who donated.
